NEW SUBTERRANEAN FOUND IN FRANCE

GENEVA, July 7.—(To Associated Press by Mail)—A great subterranean river, with an outflow of 67,000 gallons of water a minute, has been discovered in the Mont Blanc region. Known as Eaux Belles, this river has thrown out many underground tributaries which have formed small lakes and wells of extremely pure and cold water in the southeast districts of France and in some of the southern cantons of Switzerland. The origin of the river is the ancient lower glaciers of Mont Blanc which it has been proved flow from the bottom as well as the top, the latter supplying indirectly the Rhone and the Rhine. The waters of Eaux Belles at a depth of 25 to 50 yards beneath the mountains have carved out wonderful and beautiful caverns, grottoes and caves full of stalactites and stalagmites.

MANHATTAN IS SHOWING SIGNS RENEWED LIFE

Big White Caps Mine to Increase Force and Mill Will Start in Two Weeks

Manhattan is picking up according to reports received from the gold camp of Nye county, and the activity that is manifesting itself is pleasing to all interested in the great industry. W. L. (Dick) Taylor, the efficient superintendent of the White Caps mine and mill, who was a visitor to Tonopah yesterday for the purpose of hiring a number of miners gave it as his opinion that the big White Caps mill would be brought into commission during the next two weeks and probably sooner. The plant has been thoroughly overhauled and what makes matters all the more simplified lay in the fact that there is plenty of ore available of a splendid grade to insure continuous production for an indefinite period.

Despite the setbacks which Manhattan has suffered as a result of two serious conflagrations wherein the business section of the town was practically destroyed, the people are optimistic and are building for a future that is full of promise. There are a group of leaders at work in various sections of the camp and quite a substantial production is being made. ### INSANITY PLEA MERELY CLOAK ESCAPE CRIME

Noted Jurist Says This Defense
Plea Leaves Society Unprotected Generally

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Insanity as a defense should be done away with in criminal trials because it not only tends to leave society unprotected from the acts of persons acquitted on this ground but also becomes a cloak for crimes committed under the unwritten law, declared Curtis D. Wilbur, associate justice of the supreme court of California, in an address today before the judicial section of the American Bar association.

"At present the defense of insanity is a trap for the insane and a way of escape for the sane," he said. "It is a humbug, a pretense, a cloak for hypocrisy, an invitation to murder all too frequently accepted by the jealous lover, the discarded mistress, the indignant father or outraged husband."

He said the unwritten law had taken such hold of the imagination of the people that the trial of a murderer became the trial of the dead man, whose villainies are exaggerated as a cause for the defendant's acquittal.

Judge Wilbur who has figured prominently in juvenile and adult probation work and care of the insane in California, proposed that insanity no longer be treated as a defense to a criminal charge, that evidence on the subject be excluded from a jury trying a criminal case and that a board of alienists after conviction decide whether the defendant has committed to a state hospital, prison or released under probationary supervision to a private hospital or other custody, the state retaining jurisdiction for at least as long as the maximum term of imprisonment for the offense.

Expert witnesses were scored by Judge Wilbur, who said their testimony was frequently so conflicting as to be a hopeless bewilderment to a jury.

This Was the Warning Advice Given to Sweden by New York Radio Bug

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 7.—(By Mail to Associated Press)—"Apply for your wave length now or you will be left out in the cold," was the warning advice given to Sweden by T. W. Alexanderson of New York, chief engineer of a radio corporation, who is making a business visit to Sweden, his native land. The radio corporation has entered its bid for delivery of apparatus and equipment for the new high power wireless station which Sweden is building on its west coast.

Mr. Alexanderson declared that in his opinion radio traffic should be monopolized by the various governments of the world. Otherwise he said, the confusion in the air will be so great that all radio service may ultimately be rendered impossible.

The awarding of wave lengths to trans-Atlantic stations now is made in an international commission whose next session will probably be held in London this year.
